

Audience: special

There is no doubt that the Creative Arts is a vital element of the 21st Special Needs Curriculum and essential components of this are both drama and poetry. A key part of the English curriculum, both areas can be used not only to extend pupils' experience and understanding of language but also as a consolidator of emotional literacy.

- Drama and poetry's relationship to play
- Using language with those who do not speak
- Teaching empathy and the understanding of emotions through drama and poetry
- Appropriate works to cover all ages from nursery to post 19
- Adapting the classics
- Using call and response as a central means to engagement
- Drama and poetry to take with you to use in the classroom.
